

The name "les Couversets" is the name of a very old bourgeois family from Chateauneufdu-Pape. The last descendant of this family to bear the name was Suzanne (a distant ancestor of the QUIOT Family). The lands were passed down from generation to generation and are now completely integrated into the QUIOT Family Vineyards. The wines of Les Couversets are modern, dynamic wines but respecting the long family tradition of wines of character.

