"Blood ruby, suggesting pre-Christian sacrifices in the Gallic south of France. Intriguing aromas of dark fruits, leather, and game. Satin texture with spicy, powerful yet elegant flavours of white pepper, ripe pomegranate, red currant, black olive, pastrami, hoisin sauce, and Chinese five spice. Young, fresh, vigorous, already demonstrating impressive depth, complexity and length. A blend of Cinsault, Counoise, Grenache noir, Mourvedre, Muscardin, Syrah, Terret noir, Vaccarese, grown on 3 main types of soil: rolled pebble soils, stony terraces in the subsoil combining sand and gravel and clay soils from the limestone bedrock, aged 18 months in vats and barrels. Beautifully balanced with a fine structure with certain potential to continue evolving in the bottle over the next 10+ years. Terroir and winemaking shining."

"Candied cherries, sweet cranberries and a touch of stewed herbs. Lightly chewy in terms of tannins, with a fluid center palate and a medium-length finish. A bit overripe, but approachable. A good, simple Chateauneuf that shows early appeal. Drink now."

"Steeped black cherry and singed anise notes are fluid and smooth in this streamlined red, layered with lavender, roasted apple wood smoke and charred herbs. Ripe, with good freshness, this ripples with chalky minerality, adding textural intrigue. Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre, Cinsault, Carignan, Counoise, Terret, Picpoul, Muscardin, Picardan, Bourboulenc, Clairette and Roussanne. Drink now through 2032"
