

DOMAINE DU VIEUX LAZARET

Domaine du Vieux Lazaret White

AOC Chateauneuf du Pape

The white Châteauneuf-du-Pape is not as famous as the red, but it's a must-discover, full of subtlety and elegance perfectly suited to white meats, mushroom dishes or simply good goat cheese. The aromas of our Domaine du Vieux Lazaret make it a suitable Châteauneuf-du-Pape to discover the Appellation in white which will delight connoisseurs of this rare product.

THE WINE

Our Domaine du Vieux Lazaret is one of the main estate of the appellation and one of the oldest, dating from 1748. The domaine covers around 100 ha, spread over the 3 typical terroirs. All 13 grape varieties are cultivated on our lands.

LOCATION

Our plots are spread over several terroirs, around the village. This allows us balanced wines with all finesse.

TERROIR

Clay soils formed from the decomposition of the limestone mother rock and soils of a sandy texture.

IN THE VINEYARD

10% of our domaine is planted in white grape varieties with the majority of Clairette and Grenache.

HARVEST START DATE

October 2019 - unlike many of our colleagues, we finish the harvest with white grape varieties.

VINIFICATION

Pneumatic pressing, static cold settling, matured on lees for 4 months. No MLF. The Roussanne is vinified and matured in barrel before final blending.

VARIETALS

Bourboulenc, Clairette, Grenache blanc, Roussanne

TASTING NOTES

It is a long wine on the palate, full and fat, highlighting white flowers, peach and lemon on its youth. The years will give it apricot, honey and almond aromas and will confirm its minerality.

VISUAL APPEARANCE

Pale yellow, limpid and brilliant.

AT THE NOSE

White flowers, peach and lemon aromas.

ON THE PALATE

Outstandingly long finish, full and fleshy.
