

Houchart Tradition White 2021

côtes de provence,

The white Provence, not very well-known, is a concentrate of subtle pears and citrus fruits. To discover.

THE STORY

At the foot of the Sainte Victoire mountain, 15 kms from Aix en Provence, in the commune of Puylobier, this domaine was bought in 1890 by Aurélien Houchart, a negociant and friend of Cézanne and great-grand father of Geneviève Quiot. This family estate has been farmed since Roman times, some distance away from the "Via Aurelia".

THE VINTAGE

The 2021 vintage has a beautiful expression of white fruits.

LOCATION

At the foot of the Sainte Victoire mountain, near the town of Puylobier. The domaine is located in the plain between the Sainte Victoire and Aurélien mountains. This very particular situation creates a very specific climate to this area.

TERROIR

Clay-limestone soils, with a coarse texture, resulting from the decomposition of the bedrock of the surrounding mountains.

IN THE VINEYARD

In traditional culture, the work in the vineyard favors the work of the soil and the preservation of the environment.

VINIFICATION

Direct pressing then settling at 10°C. Fermentation in stainless steel vats at 18°C.

AGEING

Ageing on fine lees while awaiting precocious bottling, from December.

VARIETALS

Clairette, Rolle, Sémillon

SPECIFICATIONS

Alcohol content: 13.5 ABV

SERVING

REVIEWS AND AWARDS

falstaff

91/100

"A very fruity nose boasts hints of ripe citrus and white pear, but there are tropical overtones, too. The palate is light and balanced and reveals a lovely spicy, grassy undertow. The finish is harmonious, dry and fresh."
