

DOMAINE DUCLAUX

The Duclaux family is one of the oldest in Châteauneuf-du-Pape in which they always had a discreet but involved role. This scandal-free family has worked his domaine with passion and seriousness over the centuries, the only events being constituted by the quality of the vintages, frost, hail, rain or wind. The Quiot and Duclaux families built up bounds and family connections over the years. The last representative of this family, Emmeline Latour, died on April the 23rd 2001. Godmother of Florence, she left this wonderful domaine in the care of Florence and Jean-Baptiste Quiot.
