REVIEWS AND AWARDS

JAMES SUCKLING.COM

93/100

"A precise, layered and attractive Chateauneuf with aromas of sliced apples, warm herbs, anise, stones and wildflowers. It's medium-bodied with a succulent development on the palate. There's a subtle texture, with notes of herbs, flowers, bitter almonds and fresh green pears. Plenty of patina and precision, with a long, flavorful finish. Drink or hold."

Sélections Mondiales des Vins

93/100

"Brilliant, pale yellow hue, precise and layered on the nose, opening with a bouquet of white flowers, sliced apples, and sun-baked herbs, underpinned by subtle notes of anise and stony minerality. Medium-bodied with both broad and refined palate, revealing initial notes of fresh peach and citrus, evolving into a weave of fresh green pears, wildflowers, and bitter almonds, all supported by a subtle, well-integrated texture. Fresh and vibrant now, it will likely develop deeper notes of apricot, honey, and toasted almonds over time, while its inherent minerality becomes more pronounced. The finish is exceptionally long and precise, showcasing depth and elegance. Drink over the next 5-10 years. 13.5%. AV. If I were keeping score: 4.5□, 93/100, A"
